

That the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has been made our home life much more enjoyable. Having 6-10 less calls a day means that many less interruptions to our lives and less aggravation. I don't want calls from companies who consider me a current or past customer. I resent these intrusions.

Please do not change Indiana's ability to have our own rules on this matter